Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons and the First Amended Counterclaims. An entity (such as yourself) located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff (here the United States and Tribe) located in the United States to waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the claims of the opposing parties are unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the Notice in Lieu of Summons or to the service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

An entity in this case who waives service must, within 60 days, as specified on the waiver form, provide the court and DOJ attorney S. Schneider with a notice of appearance and intent to participate.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons and the First Amended Counterclaims. An entity (such as yourself) located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff (here the United States and Tribe) located in the United States to waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the claims of the opposing parties are unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the Notice in Lieu of Summons or to the service of the Notice in of Summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

An entity in this case who waives service must, within 60 days, as specified on the waiver form, provide the court and DOJ attorney S. Schneider with a notice of appearance and intent to participate.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Notice in Lieu of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons and the First Amended Counterclaims. An entity (such as yourself) located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff (here the United States and Tribe) located in the United States to waive service of a Notice in Lieu of Summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the claims of the opposing parties are unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the Notice in Lieu of Summons or to the service of the Notice in Lieu of Summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

An entity in this case who waives service must, within 60 days, as specified on the waiver form, provide the court and DOJ attorney S. Schneider with a notice of appearance and intent to participate.

OBITUARIES

Pat Simmons

Ethel Patricia Simmons (Pat) passed away April 29, 2005 in San Jacinto, California where she had been living for the past five years. Pat was 76 years old. Pat is survived by her daughter Cheryl Horan; her son Reed Simmons (Mary); grandchildren Jed and Chad Hora; her sister Marilyn Fox (Curt) and her daughter; her cousin Bobbe Kahaner (Bud) and their two daughters; and her dearest friend and love Fran Locken. Pat was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Evelyn Van Norden. She was the first of two daughters and was raised in Mill Valley, California. She was previously married to Stan Simmons and together they farmed in Ontario, California in the 1950s. They moved to Lake Tahoe and purchased a resort and marina in Tahoe City called the Tahoe Vista. Later they entered the motel business in Stateline and, in 1964, began ranching in Yerington. Pat was one of the most independent people you could ever meet. In 1992, she purchased a pick-up and RV and hit the road as a full-timer. She traveled the west, making many friends along the way. She had a way with people, always laughing, being positive, and bringing out the best in them. Although Pat never remarried, this never stopped her from traveling with other groups, most of whom were couples. They always counted her as one of their friends and she them. Later, Pat settled down in San Jacinto and met her dearest friend and love, Fran Locken. They enjoyed each other's company for several years until she passed away. A private memorial service for Pat's close friends and family will be held. In lieu of flowers, the family wishes donations to be made to the American Lung Association, P. O. Box 7056, Reno, Nevada 89510.
